2. Constitution of Faculty Advisory Board

Dan

After much discussion, we agreed that the process by which the Faculty Advisory Board will be constituted should include a willingness to serve period of a faculty election that generates a pool of candidates, out of which FAB members are appointed by FEC in consultation with the VPAA. At full strength, the FAB will include 6 faculty members, at least 4 of which are tenured. This decision was informed by a wide-ranging conversation about the benefits of balancing diversity and the security of tenure among the FAB members. The initial appointments will include 6

5. Replacement for IRC

We agreed to support Jennifer Bonner's appointment to IRC.

6. Survey on faculty service/governance

We continued to refine the survey and agreed that Lisa would bring us t shortly.

Respectfully submitted,

John Brueggemann
