In creating ballots, FEC has adopted the standard of multiplying the number of candidates that need to be elected (n) by two, plus one (2n+1) with some latitude.

The table below offers some possible ranges:

Number of openings	Preferred # of candidates	Acceptable # of candidates
1	3	3 or 4
2	5	4 to 6
3	7	5 to 8

FEC considers the following guidelines when constructing a ballot.

1. FEC respects faculty choice and always attempts to place candidates on ballots to reflect how they ranked committees under their preferences. When faculty members rank committees (1

When possible, FEC will complete elections and appointments during the fall semester, with elections taking place prior to Thanksgiving break. The following is suggested:

1. Early September Confirm with committee chairs the number of openings on each committee that will need to be filled (and any relevant restrictions on department, division, and/or rank) for the upcoming service period.
2. / D September Solicit exemption requests from faculty.
3. / D W H 6 H S W H Preference Sheet Form Mail will be sent to all "Eligible" faculty announcing the dates that the preference sheet will be open, and including instructions on how to access and complete the online form. Preference sheets will include any pertinent information about standing committee meeting times and course releases to help faculty make informed decisions about ranking. A separate email will be sent to the cohort of faculty who are required to serve in the forthcoming service period. Once the deadline has passed, FEC chair or designated member will check to make sure that everyone in the cohort has submitted their preference sheets and identify discrepancies. Faculty who fail to submit preference sheets will have committee preference automatically ranked in committee order.
4. Before the due date for preference sheets, FEC will email to the faculty at least once the current slate of candidates for ATC and PC.
5. Mid-October – Mid-November: Hold elections. Ballots for ATC and PC will be open for 2 business days, 9 AM to 5 PM the next day; all other ballots will be open for 1.5 days, 9 AM to noon the following day.
6. Prior to each election, FEC will announce which candidates will appear on the upcoming ballot and their ranking of the committee on their preference sheets, along with a list of restrictions (e.g. divisional and tenure restrictions) for the openings on that committee, if applicable. The FEC Chair will email each candidate to inform them when they are eligible to run.
