If the DDAA believes a hearing panel is needed to respond to the situation, one may be convened and members appointed by the DDAA. The hearing panel will consist of three employee (faculty/staff) members of the Diversity and Affirmative Action Committee; the DDAA will appoint one of the three to serve as chair of the panel. In the case of a student to student incident, the DDAA will insure that the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee joins the panel as a member. The DDAA will be present at the hearing, acting as an observer and as a resource to panel members. If the case presents a conflict of interest for the DDAA, the President will appoint an alternate to replace her/him. The hearing is a private, internal procedure of the College; attorneys cannot be present. The panel will have access to all available information required to establish relevant facts (including discussions with both the complainant and the respondent) and to recommend a response to the DDAA; the DDAA will make a final recommendation to the President.

All student-to-student, and student-to employee (when the student is the harasser) cases follow the procedures in the Student Handbook. The student integrity board reviews will include a representative from the Office of Diversity and Affirmative Action. The Director of Diversity and Affirm

* The policy states that the Director of Diversity and Affirmative Action has ultimate responsibility for following up on all complaints and will be involved in each case of sexual harassment. What if there is a conflict of interest on a particular case?

In instances where there is a conflict of interest for the DDAA, the President will appoint someone from the Diversity and Affirmative Action Committee in place of the DDAA.

* What if someone reports and charges ME with sexual harassment--and it is not true?

Anyone who knowingly, maliciously or frivolously makes a false allegation of sexual harassment will be subject to disciplinary action by the College, including termination of employment.
