Staff Position Description

Section 1: Identifying Information

Position Title: Assistant Director for Employment, Compliance, and

Workforce Diversity

Department Human Resources
Status: Full Time: 12months

Supervisor: Chief Human Resources Officer (Brett Last)

Date: 6/27/19

Band: --- FLSA Status: Exempt

Section 2: Position Summary

The Assistant Director for Employment, Compliance and Workforce Diversity in conjunction with the Chief Human Resource ficer, and in partnership with the Title IX Deputy Country, and hiring supervisors, functions as the College's HR Compliance resource and investigates, complaints against faculty or staff, involving dawful harassment (Title VII), VAWA, Title IX, Equal Employment O

- 5. Supervise the Employment Coordinator who works with department chairs and supervisors to determine needs for open positions.
- 6. Serves as the recokeeper/Historian for labor contracts and provides guidance to the HR Client Partners on escalated employee issues within the bargaining units that relate to past practice. Collaborates with the CHRO on escalated issues involving contract interpretation. Supports contract negotiations as needed.
- 7. Acts as the owner and subject matter expert related to core employment policies as described in the Employee Handbook. Works with internal and external partners (e.g. legal counsel) as appropriate on necessary updates to ensure ongoing compliance.
- 8. Works with other stakeholders in HR to audit key employment and recruitment practices su@h as I compliance and adherence to the College's background screening protocols.
- 9. Partners with the Vice President for Straite glanning and Institutional Diversity and other campus stakeholders/constituents on diversity initiatives with a particular focus on initiatives that relate to the employee experience as well as initiatives aimed at improving the recruitment and retention diverse employees.
- 10. Performs other related duties as assigned, including, but not limited to, participating in cross functionalhuman resources projects as assigned based on annualized goals or departmental needs.

Section 4: Judgment, Discretion and Complexity

Must be able to lead through collaboration and influence. Must be able to make decisions and provide advice on a wide range of HR related matters. These matters will range from tactical to strategic, and will range in impact and complexity. These matters, in some cases, will directly impact the organizational design, college culture, and/or employment relationship.

Section 5: Relationship s and Resource Management

The Employment Coordinator will report directly to this position. Additionally, the Assistant Director will need to maintain positive relationships and collaborate with all members of the HR Team. In order to be successful in this position they will neted cultivate relationships of trust and respect with stakeholders at all levels across campus. Must be able to seamlessly navigate shifting priorities and have the ability to balance demands across multiple constituencies.

Section 6: Qualifications and Competencies

Education:Bachelor's degrees required. A Master's degree in a related discipline is preferred.

Experience5-7 years of experience experience in higher education is desirable. Must be conditionally working with MS Office products and HRIS systems. Ability to thrive in a team oriented environment is required as is a demonstrated commitment to professional integrity.

Section 7: Physical Work Environ ment
This position is based in an office environment.
Supervisor Signature	Date
Employee Signature	Date